NEWS.

day's book dispatches

COUNCIL.—Both boards of the council were in session last night. A new board an ordinance was passed allowing W. K. Thomas $7,587 for keeping contrabands. A resolution was passed regulating the running of coal carts. It requires every car to carry a ticket, and any officer or citizen has the right to stop the cart and have it weighed. Should the weight fall short, the owner is to be fined, one-half of said fine going to the informer. A resolution was adopted authorizing commissioners of the sinking fund to deposit the fund in any banking institution. The deposit has heretofore been made in the Bank of Kentucky. In the lower board a resolution passed authorizing the Mayor to borrow on the credit of the city a sufficient sum to purchase 500,000 bushels of coal, to be sold to the citizens at cost. In the Board of Aldermen the resolution met with considerable opposition, and every effort was made to defeat the ordinance. Several amendments were offered, and at last an amendment to strike out 500,000 bushels and insert 200,000 was adopted, and the ordinance as amended passed. The Council not being able to agree on terms of adjournment, they will meet again to-night.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS.—Thursday, Dec. 3.—Eliza Ryan, drunk and disorderly; went out for three months.

John Eckhart and Philip Schweitzer, stealing $67 from Jonathan Pryor; continued until to-morrow.

Mike Clinchens, assault on Peter Curry; bond to answer the charge; matter sent before the grand jury.

Grand jury was ordered for the 10th day of December.

John Day, drunk, &c.; $200 for six months; workhouse.

O. H. P. Anders, alias Anderson, forgery.

He forged an order on R. C. Schlick for a trunk full of clothing; continued.

George Mitchell alias Hogan, suspected felon and proved to be a thief. He is the same man who was shot yesterday; bail in $500 for one year; his picture is procured for future reference.

J. B. Gibson, stealing boots, the property of J. T. Vonvagen, at Brown's hotel; no case of felony made out—all a mistake, and the party discharged.

Joseph Rogers, suspected felon; $100 for three months; went out.

Own Morgan, drunkenness; discharged.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—Highway robberies of late have been of common occurrence in our city, and so to do we have these midnight assassins become that a person is hardly safe in the suburbs of the city after nightfall. On Tuesday, as a milkman was returning home, about 7 o'clock in the evening, he was waylaid in the corner of Twelfth and Jefferson streets by three men dressed in the garb of soldiers, and by presenting pistols to his head they made him disgorge what money he had, which was $10.50. After this they allowed him to depart. Some effort should be made by the authorities, both civil and military, to put a stop to this, and to have the guilty parties arrested and brought to speedy justice. The life and property of the citizen should be protected, and, if the police force is not strong enough, let the Council at its next meeting pass a resolution increasing that force, and let a sufficient number of men be put on watch to check the onward progress of these midnight robbers and assassins.

The remains of Captain Upton Wilson, who was killed in the charge upon the rebels at Missionary Ridge on the 25th of November, reached this city yesterday, in care of his brother, Dr. J. M. Wilson. His funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock, from the residence of his mother, corner of Eighth and Jefferson streets.

Captain Wilson commanded Company I, of the Louisville Legion, and was one of the most gallant men in that famous regiment.

He had been in the three days' fight, and was killed just as victory crowned the labors of the day. His wound must have caused immediate death. He was but 23 years of age.

We knew him as a most excellent gentleman, and there are many in the city who will remember him as one of the first to volunteer in defense of the country. However we may regret his death, it is some consolation to his friends to know that he died nobly doing his duty, and in defense of the old flag.

ROBBERY.—The upper portion of the city appears to be flooded with thieves, and scarcely a night passes that we do not hear of a robbery being committed. A few nights since some bold thief entered the Bourbon House, situated at the corner of Shelby and Main streets, went to the sleeping apartments of the guests while they were asleep, and robbed the borders of various amounts. One man lost one hundred and fifty dollars, another ninety dollars, and a third a fine gold watch. We have been unable to learn the names of any of the parties robbed. The robbery was evidently committed by some one well acquainted with the house.

NEW POST COMMANDER.—General Boyle yesterday appointed Colonel A. W. Holman, of the Eleventh Kentucky cavalry, commander of this post, vice Colonel Marc Minny, who has been ordered to the front by General Grant. Colonel Holman is a brave officer, having served his country faithfully ever since the rebellion broke out. He will make an excellent commander, and our citizens may congratulate themselves upon having the services of so distinguished an officer.

Yester morning officer John Antle arrested a woman by the name of Eliza Shaw, employed in the capacity of servant in the house of Mrs. Burks, on the charge of stealing a silk dress from her employer. She was lodged in jail and will have a hearing before judge Johnson this morning.

PRISONERS SENT NORTH.—Yesterday over fifteen hundred more of the prisoners captured in the late battle near Chattanooga, arrived in this city, were forwarded to Rock Island under escort of a strong guard. They will be confined there until they are exchanged.

ARRIVAL OF PRISONERS.—On yesterday fifteen hundred more of the prisoners captured in the late battle near Chattanooga, arrived on a special train from Nashville. They were confined in the military prison, and will probably be sent forward to day.

The Jeffersville train yesterday was two hours behind time, having been detained at Lafayette, Ind., and we did not receive our Cincinnati papers till a late hour.

Why is it that Plumb's coal is selling cheaper in New Albany than in this city? Will some of our coal dealers explain this?

The price of coal is now $100 per car, and short measure at that.

Arrest of Morgan's Officers—Rumored Movements of Morgan.

We mentioned in the Democrat of yesterday morning that Capt. Samuel B. Taylor and Ralph Sheldon, two of the officers who escaped with Morgan from the Columbus, Ohio, penitentiary, had been arrested near this city. On Wednesday evening the military authorities received information that Captain Taylor was at the house of Mrs. Walker Taylor, who resides some five miles from the city, on the Brownwood road. Major Farris, with a guard, immediately went to the house and arrested Taylor. They asked Capt. Taylor if there was any other officer in the house, to which he replied there was not. Ed. H. Taylor, of this city, and Garrard Bate, of the county, were present, and after correcting Captain Taylor in his statements they were arrested and brought to the city on the charge of attempting to recruit rebel officers. The house was searched, and Captain Sheldon was found. The parties were all brought to this city, and on yesterday the two citizens were released upon taking the oath and giving bonds. The two rebel officers were lodged in the jail Thursday night, and were yesterday taken to the military prison, where they will be safely kept.

The prisoners state that Morgan, with six Captains Bennett, Taylor, Sheldon, Blines, Hockersmith and McGee escaped from the prison, and that Morgan, with the other officers, got upon the trail at Columbus within fifteen minutes after he made his escape, and came this way. They were detained, and slept in an old shed until the following night, when they started. They say that Morgan and the other officers were ahead of them, and that it was the intention of Morgan to cross the Cumberland river Wednesday night.

It is rumored that Morgan is to have command of the different bands of guerrillas in this State, all of whom will be concentrated on the south bank of the Cumberland river, and that as soon as they can get together, he will make a raid through the State, and probably strike the Louisville and Nashville railroad. Our military authorities should be on the lookout for a movement of this kind, and be prepared to nip it in the bud.

OLD LADY ROBBED.—On yesterday an old lady arrived in our city from Cincinnati on her way to Nashville. She put up at a boarding-house on Fourth street, where she made the acquaintance of a soldier, who pretended to be a friend of her husband. This soldier offered to accompany her to the boat, and the old lady forgetting to carry along her carpet-bag, which contained one hundred and seventy-five dollars, all the money she had. The soldier volunteered to return, get the carpet bag and bring it to the boat. He got the carpet-bag and made off with it, robbing the old lady of all the money she had. The thief had not been arrested up to late hour last night.

A Correspondent of the London Lancet and Dr. A. B. Hale, of Boston, Mass., both call the attention of the medical and dental profession to the use of red vulcanite base, now employed by some dentists as a basis for inserting artificial teeth and ask whether or not the general use of vulcanite is better as a basis for artificial teeth, is having a deleterious effect upon the health of those wearing it constantly in contact with the glandular secretions of the mouth. Several cases have been verbally reported in which there are grave suspitions that this new dental material is producing an injurious influence upon the system.

S. VENSTIN'S INSTITUTION FOR THE IN-SANE, ST. LOUIS, MO.—This institution is under the management of the Sisters of Charity. It was opened August 10, 1853, and is pleasantly situated in a healthy and airy part of the city. Persons having relatives or wards afflicted with insanity, epilepsy, &c., and are private patients for them, rather than a public State asylum, will find a comfortable home, with experienced medical attendance, and efficient and devoted nurses, in the St. Vincent's Institution. For particulars apply to the sister Superior of the institution, or to Dr. B. J. Allen, attending physician. 44 Main

Fast DAIRY.—We could call the attention of both civil and military authorities to the recklessness at which persons are driving through the streets, thus endangering the lives of passers by. Night before last a government wagon, in turning the corner of Third and Main streets at a turnpike, ran into a private carriage, upsetting it and throwing the occupant into the street, but fortunately, no one was injured. There is an ordinance against fast driving, and the authorities should see that it is enforced.

The remains of Captain Upton Wilson, who was killed in the charge upon the rebels at Missionary Ridge on the 25th of November, reached this city yesterday, in care of his brother, Dr. J. M. Wilson. His funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock, from the residence of his mother, corner of Eighth and Jefferson streets.
